

From: "Chiodo, John J." <jjchiodo@ou.edu>
Subject: RE: ATE article permission
Date: September 4, 2008 1:02:50 PM EDT
To: Stephanie Behm <sbehm@vt.edu>

---

Stephanie,

You have my official permission to use the following article as part of your dissertation.

Lloyd, G.M. & Behn, S.L. (2005), Preservice elementary teachers' analysis of mathematics instructional materials. Action in Teacher Education, 26(4), 48-62.

If you need a statement on official letterhead, I will be happy to send one to you.

Congratulations on completing your doctoral program.

John J. Chiodo
Editor
Action in Teacher Education

---

From: Stephanie Behm [sbehm@vt.edu]
Sent: Wednesday, September 03, 2008 6:20 PM
To: Chiodo, John J.; Action in Teacher Education
Subject: ATE article permission

Dr. Chiodo and Ms. Bolf-Beliveau,

I am a doctoral student at VT, and I've just finalized and defended my dissertation. I selected the manuscript option, which meant I was able to include past journal articles as well as future articles within the body of the dissertation. I included the following article in my dissertation, with permission from my committee:

Lloyd, G. M., & Behm, S. L. (2005). Preservice elementary teachers' analysis of mathematics instructional materials. Action in Teacher Education, 26(4), 48-62.

In order to finish my program, I need to upload the final dissertation to our electronic database. However, since chapter 3 of my dissertation is the article I published from ATE, I need written permission from the journal to include this chapter. Is that possible? If so, could you let me know what I need to do to get official permission?

Thank you both!
Stephanie Behm