

CIRRICULUM VITAE

Joseph L. Hunter

301 Loudon Road, #632
Blacksburg, Virginia 24060
tel. (540) 552-6797
email: johunter@vt.edu

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION:

Ethics and Applied Ethics.

ARES OF COMPETENCE:

History of Modern Philosophy, Animal Ethics, Kant, and Race Matters.

EDUCATION:

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
Ph.D., Public Administration and Public Policy (expected May 2002)

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
MA, Philosophy, 1999
Thesis: "Kant's Doctrine of Schemata."
Thesis Committee: Eric Watkins (chair), Roger Ariew, and Joseph Pitt.

The University of Dayton
BA, Philosophy, 1992, Magna Cum Laude

ACADEMIC POSITIONS:

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, 5/1999 to Present
Graduate Research Assistant
Center for Public Administration and Policy

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, 1997-1999
Graduate Teaching Assistant
Department of Philosophy

- PHIL 1204, Knowledge and Reality (Professor Joseph Pitt)
- PHIL 1304, Morality and Justice (Professor Patrick Croskery)

- PHIL 1504, Language and Logic (Professor Harlan Miller)
- PHIL 3025, The History of Modern Philosophy (Professor Eric Watkins)

The University of Dayton, 1995-1997

Undergraduate Teaching Assistant

Department of Philosophy

- PHL 103, Introduction to Philosophy (Professor Monalisa Mullins)

HONORS AND AWARDS:

- The University of Dayton's Outstanding Senior in Philosophy Award, awarded in 1997.
- The University of Dayton Leadership Award, awarded in 1992.
- The Jesse Philips Foundation Scholarship, awarded in 1992.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS:

- People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals
- The North American Kant Society
- The Virginia Philosophical Association,
- The Association for Practical and Applied Ethics
- Phi Sigma Tau, The National Philosophy Honor Society

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT:

- The Graduate Student Assembly, delegate.
- The New River Valley Coalition for Animal Rights and the Environment, academic advisor.