

Vita

Wachira Chongburee was born on August 9, 1969 in the southern region of Thailand. He earned the Bachelor degree in Electrical Engineering from Kasetsart University, Bangkok, Thailand in May 1991. After that, he started his career as an instructor and research assistant at the same university. Two years later, he won a scholarship sponsored by the Science and Technology Affairs of Thailand to pursue graduate study at Virginia Tech. After graduation, he will return to Thailand and serve as a government employee at Kasetsart University.