

Kristine L. Higgins

VITA

Kristine Higgins was born on December 24th 1970 in Boston, Massachusetts. She graduated from Camden-Rockport High School in Camden, Maine in 1989. She attended Mt. Holyoke College from 1989-90 and then transferred to the University of Maine where she received her B.S. degree in wildlife management in 1993. From 1993 through 1995 she worked for the Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife on their bear study and their endangered species and shorebird projects. In May of 1995 she began a M.S. project at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, studying the effects of using hounds to pursue black bears in the George Washington and Jefferson National Forests in Virginia.