

Vita

Prashant Bagade

The author was born on March 22, 1967 at Hyderabad, India. He had completed his B.S. in Agriculture and Animal Husbandry in 1988 from G.B. Pant University of Agriculture and Technology, Pantnagar, India. From the same university he was awarded M.S. in Plant Breeding during 1991. He was a recipient of Graduate Research Assistantship during the MS program. For his thesis he has worked on "Mutation Induced Variability in Rice". Later during 1991 he had joined Virginia Tech for higher studies and completed his MS program in 1998. During his study he was awarded Graduate Research Assistantship. He got married in 1995 and is working as an "Environmental Analyst" at Chemtex Environmental and Industrial Hygiene Services, Port Arthur, TX since 1996.