Everybody's Talkin'—Virginia Tech's 104-66 conquest of Richmond and Bob Ayersman's 47-point performance not only has Gobbler fans newly-enthused over their team's chances in the upcoming Southern Conference title tournament but has spawned visions of future basketball grandeur . . . As is well-known, Tech loses only Captain Terry Penn and Coach Chuck Noe has brilliant reinforcements being developed on this year's freshman team. So good are they (don't miss 'em when they play at Warwick High Feb. 23), that only Ayersman and 6-foot-6 Chris Smith can be any way certain of holding their starting jobs in 1959-60. . . .
