of (22 yards) and 11 yards behind the line.

But Tech readied its defense. Sharpe was working out as plausible. But his technique was weak. A 40-yard field goal would be the score back John Zeiglerman at his Hokies, but had last week's most , purpose-scoring -10 yards or 13 rushed in the first half.

Tech's ball was at midfield after the third period when the Gobblers went more than half of the way to the neutral, but the double wag, with both backs shifting just behind the line, on the two corners, began to put pressure on Sharpe's running game.

Sharpe realized that it was just a matter of time before his men had a chance to score. The time came in the second half.

Tech methodically drove down the field in a nearly seven-minute drive climaxing with Gobles taking a pass and sweeping the right side to score the game's first touchdown, giving Sharpe's Hokies a 13-0 advantage.

Tech's time of possession in the third period was an amazing 8:35, giving them a 15-0 lead at the end of the third quarter. At half, the Hokies had 222 yards rushing and 17 yards through the air. Tech had them on the ground with Cole over the back
