Tech's George Heath Is Dragged Down by Virginia's Mike Ozdowski in First Half

VPI, W&M Win

Virginia Tech's Roscoe Coles scored from the one-yard line with 1:08 to play yesterday to cap a 70-yard drive that gave the Gobblers a 14-10 football victory over Virginia's Cavaliers in a game in Charlottesville.

At Annapolis, tailback Jim Kruis caught one pass for a touchdown and ran 18 yards for another en route to a 171-yard day as William and Mary handed Navy its fourth straight loss, 21-13.

Unbeaten East Carolina beat VMI, 17-3, in Lexington, scoring on its first possession when Eddie Hicks capped a 63-yard drive with a 44-yard run.

In the World Series, Joe Morgan hit a first-inning home run and Don Gullett and Pedro Borbon combined for a five-hitter to give the Cincinnati Reds a 5-1 win over the New York Yankees in the opening game.
