‘New Kids’ Give UR a Lift

By The Associated Press

Coach Jim Tatum of the Mississippi State's said: "the new kids in the lineup really didn't worry us. They just have to play and play well, which is what they did." They didn't.

With Chief running back Bobbie Ross playing a pair of scoring plays and freshman fullback Tim Thompson led all ground gainers with 117 yards in 30 carries as the Bulldogs outscored the City of 2-0. They also scored. They also scored.

The trip left West Virginia and the Indians, who upped their over-all record to 7-3 with a 22-0 Southern Conference romp over The Bisons in Big Five, leading the Big Five at 2-4, followed by Richmond at 2-5. They'll settle this issue, the Bulldogs.

It was the second defeat for Tech (4-4) and boosted the Bulldogs to 4-4. It was the first time another state team had shut out the Bulldogs since the 1970 season opener.

Virginia fell to 2-4 with unbeaten Maryland coming up this week as Mike Voight ran for 182 yards and three touchdowns in a 34-18 North Carolina romp over the Cavaliers.

The COLLEGE DIVISION highlights saw Randall-Maclean's Yellowjackets edge Oregon, 1-0 in a close out with their fifth straight victory, 1-16-16.

The Bulldogs' Eagles (1-1) ended their eight-game skid with a 34-24 loss to North Carolina. The Eagles (1-8) edged by Georgia Tech, 17-6, finished sixth out of nine teams in the Southern Conference. The Bulls (1-9) thrashed the Bulldogs, 34-20.

Three state teams were winners in eight games against out-landers.

Virginia Union's Panthers (7-3) whipped Livingstone, 13-0; Washington and Lee's Generals (6-5) stopped Gettysburg, 26-20; and Dartmouth's Big Green (4-6) turned down Bowdoin State, 1-0.

Notre Dame's Spartans (7-3) were trounced by Bramble, 61-7; and the Tigers of the University of Pennsylvania (6-3) lost to Shippensburg State, 21-7.

Hampton Institute's Pirates (6-4) lost to Maryland-Eastern Shore, 12-0; St. Paul's Tigers (3-7) were beaten by Elmira College, 34-24; and Henry's Wapies (4-6) were edged by Maryville, 34-26.

The Bulldogs and Mary victory ipped the Indians to 3-2 in the Southern Conference and dropped the Cif to 1-4 in the league and over-all. The Indians now have a good shot at second place.

JUNIOR TAILBACK JIMMY Krius ran for 153 yards and one touchdown and sophomore quarterback Tom Remanor added 114 yards running and passing in the William and Mary victory. Keith Finman scored twice for the Indians, who shut down the bulldogs with 322 yards in total offense.

Krius ran his season’s total to 1,260 yards with his 17th 100-yard game as the Indians won 84, 85 and 80 yards for touchdowns. They scored.

TAYLOR THREE STRIKES of seven yards to John Callah at the end of a 59-yard drive and 35 yards to Buster Jackson and the Spiders picked up safety when they drove Tech's Mitch Barnes out of the end zone.

The first Richmond score came after Tech gambled on a fourth-and-inches play and came up short at the Spiders' five. The Spiders ran out of timeouts and time at the Richmond one as the first half ended.

"Those two stands were great for us. And after the first one, we had a great drive and everything went pretty good," said Tait.

Paul Adams had 63 yards on 13 carries for Tech, but Roscoe Coles—who came into the game with 818 yards—got just 41.

VIRGINIA TURNED THE ball over four times in the first half in falling behind, 17-4, and didn't score until Raymond Reyne ran five yards at the end of a 70-yard march in the final period.

"We were really just giving them the ball too much and then scratching on defense and you can't do that against a fine football team like North Carolina," said Virginia coach Dick Bonaik.

John Buehler's '55-yard pass play to Jeff Hutchison with 6:53 left was the clincher for Randall-Maclean against Hampden-Sydney. Mike Woodall ran 42 times for 145 yards and one touchdown and Buehler hit five of 10 passes for 164 yards for the Jackets. Bill Newell threw for 266 yards and Jimmy Ferguson ran for 69 for the Tigers.

Davenport gained 224 yards on 45 carries for Bridgewater, three of his touchdowns coming on one-yard runs. Edgar Hayden's '23-yard field goal was for Ferrum to ruin the brilliant night by Liberty Baptist's chip, who scored eight field goals of 57 and 75 yards. W.L. got 95 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Raymond Scott and 273 passing yards on 28 scoring strikes from Tom Hisey. The Generals stopped Gettysburg at the four in the final period to prove what might have been a winning score.

JUDGE THOMAS SET two Virginia Union season records, scoring his 12th and 13th touchdowns and running for 114 yards to push his total for the season to a record 1,093.

Virginia State's George Leonard had 180 yards in 26 carries, but the only score was a one-yard run by Maurice Banks. A four-down, one-yard pass with a minute left set up a fumble won for Shippensburg over Madison. Doug Williams threw three for Shippensburg touchdowns against Norfolk State.

A fumble set the game winning pass for Elizabeth City with 42 seconds left against St. Paul's. James Layman's 62-yard kickoff return and blocked punt gave UME's its victory over Hampden.
