Long Plays Hurt VPI In 28-21 Loss

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Long-yardage plays by Florida State devastated Virginia Tech 28-21 Saturday night.

The Seminoles scored on a 97-yard run by Larry Key in the first quarter, a 75-yard pass from Jimmy Black to Mike Barnes in the second period and a 76-yard pass from Jimmy Jordan to Kurt Unglaub for the game-winning connection.

The latter two are freshmen and combined forces with 6:02 to play after Jordan hit Jackie Flowers, also a first-year player, for a 33-yard scoring pass earlier in the wild final quarter.

A 59-yard scamper by Tech's Roscoe Coles also was included in the hectic season finale.

Even with Virginia Tech's missed conversion and two Florida State long-yardage first-half scores, it took a fourth-down gamble that paid off for the Seminoles with little more than a minute to go to insure their 14-6 half-time advantage.

The Gobblers had scored first on a five-play, 52-yard drive, peaked by Paul Adams' 12-yard burst. However, Paul Engle's try for the point was hit badly and fell short.

Then, a ping-pong exchange followed, Tech intercepting and the Gobblers' standout Roscoe Coles coughing up the ball.

Finally, a Tech punt pushed Florida State to its 3 yards.
