THIENEMAN, BELL NAMED TOP HOKIES

BLACKSBURG—Oral Roberts basketball team is big and quick, Charlie Moir, head basketball coach at Tech, told members of the Blacksburg Sports Club at lunch at the Donaldson Brown Center Monday, Jan. 17. (Oral Roberts defeated the Gobblers in the Cassell Coliseum that night).

Another good team, Fairleigh Dickinson of New Jersey also will be played in Blacksburg Saturday night and a close game should result, Moir continued. Tech played well, especially in the first half against Virginia at Hampton, and should have won, Moir declared.

He expressed the hope that he would see all of those present at the luncheon at the game Saturday.

Phil Thieneman was announced as the Player of the Week for the preceding week.

Despite the bitter cold weather Monday, Jan. 17, the attendance at the luncheon was only slightly less than the average that has been maintained during the football and basketball seasons this fall and winter. Charlie B. Sayers presided at the luncheon and announced that the Blacksburg Sports Club would meet at noon this coming Monday, Jan. 24 at the VPI Donaldson Brown Center. Coach Moir is expected to speak and probably will bring a film of a game to be played this week.
