annual report 2002/2003

It was a year of increases

Over $100,000 awarded in grants and donations

More and more images available online to be used in significant publications and formal exhibitions

Pictorial essay about Blacksburg for Arcadia Press, Robert Straw

Matewon Train Station refurbishing and exhibition, Tim Hensley, Ken Miller

German Club history, Henry Dekker and students

Alumni Date Book, Andy Hall

Increased access to unique DLA resources

Over 200 cu. ft. of primary historical documents preserved and organized with 25 EAD finding aids

New staff fully integrated: O'Brien, Lane, and Pande (GA)

Lots fewer student assistants, effecting web access and Reading Room services

And more! But below are only three examples in each category. Blue underlining indicates active web link.

New Services

VAES research, impacts, and publications; available from DLA at by programmatically mirroring the appropriate files

Began discussions fall semester with Statistics Dept. to create an ETD-like database where student reports could be available to the campus community.

DLA GA, Rishi Pande wrote the submission software and database management applications with guidance from Lance French, Systems, and Carolyn Kletnieks. Spring discussions with planners of the annual Bertoti "Innovative Perspectives in History" Graduate Conference may lead to similar availability of graduate student works. [security issues have precluded full implementation]

PERSONNEL CHANGES

Trina Lane, joined DLA in July when CAM closed. A particularly welcome addition to the permanent staff, especially in light of significantly reduced budget for student assistants. Responsible for getting publications online (e.g., journals, Spectrum) and database maintenance (e.g., ETD, IAWA, ImageBase); assisted with DLA computer and software installation and maintenance

Catherine O'Brien, Manuscripts Archivist, April 2002 – May 2003. Made a major impact on collections processing (>90 lf, 9 finding aids, 17 accessions), reference services, grant preparation

Rishi Pande, Graduate Assistant, Sept. 2002-May 2003. Programming assistant: migration of flat files to web-accessible databases (e.g., Willis, Ulster Scots), student web submissions, etc. Retained through IAWA ASPIRES grant as summer wage employee to upgrade biographical database

DIGITAL LIBRARY AND ARCHIVES OUTLOOK FOR 2003/2004

- Improve access to DLA's unique resources by
 - Implementing new web-accessible databases
 - Improving functionality of existing databases
 - Purchasing a new search engine

- Improve resources in DLA by garnering new resources through outreach to
 - Donors of collections
 - Editors and authors of publications

- Garner support for DLA
 - Outreach to donors
 - National grant application
